TUESDAY – SATURDAY

July
27th – 31st, 2021

DxPx US – Only Virtual. Full Experience.

A FULLY DIGITAL CONFERENCE – NUMEROUS PARTNERING OPPORTUNITIES.

- Meet leaders, investors & innovative startups and growth companies from all around the globe
- Explore financing, co-development, licensing and M&A opportunities in pre-scheduled one-to-one meetings
- Exhibit and promote your business with your own virtual booth

Meet.

Set up your personal itinerary by pre-scheduling one-to-one meetings with startups and growth companies, investors and decision makers from Diagnostics, Precision Medicine and Research Tool companies.

Discuss.

Learn from family offices and venture capital, private equity and strategic investors. 20+ speakers share their experiences and strategies.

Exhibit.

Get to know our valued sponsoring partners and innovative companies from the industry at their booths. Enjoy company presentations and get in touch with representatives.

Pitch.

Submit a business plan and pitch in front of the DxPx jury. The winner is invited to compete at the European flagship event to win Europe's largest prized business plan competition.

Don't only take our word for it.

BROWN GIBBONS
LANG & COMPANY

“After two very successful DxPx Conferences in Europe we are excited to bring the concept to the US for the first time. DxPx is the only partnering conference dedicated to Diagnostics, Digital Health, Precision Medicine and Life Science Tools and we look forward to meeting industry participants and participating in compelling panel discussions.

CHRISTOPH BRANDENBERGER, Brown Gibbons Lang & Company LLC

McDermott
Will & Emery

“We are excited to see that the DxPx Conference will also be held in the U.S. this year. We have made a lot of great connections through the European event and look forward to the first-ever US version of this great partnering conference.
