Win up to $2 million in funding for your startup

- 42PLUS1 is an exclusive pitch competition dedicated to startups that are active in the diagnostics, digital health, precision medicine & life science tools space, with up to $2 million in funding available for our winners.
- All applicants have their business plans reviewed by at least a dozen investors or industry executives. We compile their feedback so every 42PLUS1 participant understands how their pitch compares to other applicants.
- Our eight finalists will compete live on stage at this year's DxPx U.S. to take home the grand prize. Even for participants who don't make it to the finals, you're likely to be contacted directly by interested investors and corporate players to explore financing and other business opportunities.
